EVIDENCES OF HIS SUCCESS IN CURING

CATARRH,

And other Chronic Diseases that have Resisted the Ordinary Modes of Treatment.

Letter from E. P. Murdock, Esq., Editor of the San Jose Daily Patriot.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., NEW YEAR'S DAY, 1871.

DR. ABORN, San Jose—DEAR SIR: I have felt that our business and social relations for the last ten months were of such a character as to warrant me in addressing you this testimonial of my esteem for you, professionally and socially. Your remarkable success in the treatment of my son, Frank, a youth just entering on manhood, who had been afflicted for some time with an obstinate catarrh and throat disease, was but an additional proof of the distinguished reputation you had achieved in your profession before your advent on California, and disposed me to repose that reliance upon your scientific skill in the treatment of your specialties, which was so fully sustained by the success of our prescriptions in all cases under your treatment in this city and neighborhood.

Allow me, also, to express my thanks for the liberal and gentlemanly spirit you displayed in all of our business relations. As the proprietor of the San Jose Daily Patriot, I published for you many advertisements, all of which were promptly paid for, and in a manner peculiarly agreeable.

I do not know whether this letter will be of any use to you, but I have felt impelled to write it, as well as to assure you of my sincere esteem and cordial wishes for your happiness and prosperity.

Respectfully yours, etc.,

F. B. MURDOCK,

Editor and Proprietor San Jose Daily Patriot.

Letter from Wm. B. Lake, Esq.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 10, 1871.

DR. ABORN—DEAR SIR: Permit me to add my testimony to the numerous public assurances you have received while here, of your skill and success in the treatment of those diseases which you make specialties in your practice.

My boy, now eleven years of age, had been seriously troubled for several years with catarrh, when put under your treatment; when he was immediately relieved, and has been steadily improving ever since, until now he seems almost entirely recovered, and we feel we owe to your skill his rapid convalescence, and I assure you your name will ever be held in grateful remembrance by your young patient, and his parents and friends.

Yours respectfully, WM. B. LAKE,

No. 1023 Hyde Street, San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 22, 1871.

DR. ABORN—Dear Sir: Understanding that you are about terminating your residence and practice in this city, I have thought that possibly you might be pleased to know that the little school girl, Mary Morris, whom you treated some months ago at my request, and who, you will remember, was nearly dead from seriously afflicted with some bronchial trouble when she went to you; is now ENTIRELY CURED, both of deafness and bronchial affection, and declares that she was virtually cured on her first visit to you. She and her parents are very grateful to you, and think that it is wholly due to your skill that her hearing and health are restored.

Yours truly, E. P. CLEMENT.

Card from Charles N. Fox, Esq.

[Office of Campbell, Fox & Campbell, Attorneys and Counselors at Law. No. 528 California street.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 17th, 1870.

Were it not for the good which I hope it may have done to suffering humanity, by informing them where they could find relief, I should regret having given Dr. Aborn my little testimonial of the tenth of January, for the demands made upon my time, in answering inquiries in regard to him, have been more numerous than profitable to me; and still they come.

To save the necessity for further personal application, let me say to those who care for my opinion, that time has only strengthened my first favorable opinion of Dr. Aborn, and my confidence in the permanency of the cure effected by him. All my difficulty arose from catarrh, which had become of a serious character, affecting the hearing and the throat, giving me at times acute pains, and at others rumbling sounds in the ears, frequent headaches, and so seriously affecting the bronchial tubes as to sometimes disable me from public speaking.

It is also gone, and the change was produced, not by any species of charlatanism, as many suspect of the Doctor, nor by the closed practice of putting medicines into the stomach which was not affected, but by the skillful application of medicinal remedies directly to the parts which were diseased. I have found the Doctor a gentleman in his intercourse and business, and the judgment that I have formed of him professionally is, that he is a regular physician, thoroughly acquainted with the anatomy of the human body, and possessing a remarkable degree of skill in the treatment of those diseases which he makes his specialty.

CHAS. N. FOX.

Another Wonderful Cure of Asthma and Bronchitis, after all other Methods had Failed.

SAN JOSE, March 6, 1870.

This is to certify, that I have been afflicted for over three years with Asthma and Bronchitis, and had tried every means in my power to effect a cure, and was told by my family physician (an honest and good doctor) that I could not be cured; and I become so weak that I could scarcely walk up a flight of stairs, and I happened to see a card from Lawyer Houghton, stating that he was being treated by Dr. Aborn, No. 22 Kearny street, San Francisco, and was getting great relief, and I thought I would go and see the Doctor; but I had little hope of getting relief, much less a cure. That was about the fifteenth of January, 1870, and to-day I claim to be a well man. I am fifty-nine years old. My mother and sister died with the same disease. I send this card, unsolicited, to Dr. Aborn, stating that it might meet the eye of some of my acquaintance that might be suffering in the same way. J. W. HARDWICK.

Has WONDERFUL SUCCESS in curing CHRONIC DISEASES after the usual routine of the profession have failed, and the many testimonials in his possession from prominent and influential men who are well known will substantially prove.

NO PAINFUL OPERATIONS.

DR. ABORN does not subject his patients to any painful or unpleasant operations; his treatment is mild, and safe for the most delicate child. The afflicted are hereby informed, that after the first visit, for many of the diseases which he makes a specialty, they can take the treatment home and use it until cured, without pain or interruption to their usual occupation.

[DISEASE TENDING TO CONSUMPTION.]

This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and finally most destructive of diseases incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages catarrh fails to attract the patient's attention, so insidious is its approach. This is an unfortunate circumstance, because the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upward to the frontal sinuses, backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia, to the air cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more than usual acrid character. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as sometimes happens, the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

Some cases early assume the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their lining membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the diseased surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstruction of the lachrymal ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and possibly ophthalmia—inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes, and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, buzzing sounds in the head, and impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward, the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and unmanageable; cough comes on, with expectoration and emaciation, to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities among which are flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion, and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being suddenly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others, the prominent feeling is that of the melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs; thus causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor to its ensending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished and finally arrested, and whereby the ulcerated surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By means of pow and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able in Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his remedies directly to the desired localities. Treatment is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many cases the first applications of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

A FEW REMARKS ON

DISEASES OF THE EAR.

It is a well known fact that Diseases of the Ear are among the most frequent and most serious affections to which the human system is exposed, and that Deafness, or impairment of the hearing, is a lamentable misfortune alike to the public instructor, the military officer, and the government official, as each is obliged to yield his position to another. Equally unfortunate is the loss of hearing to mothers, who have the moral correction of the speech of offspring; and to that offspring in after life, thus cut off from the principal source through which both moral training and intellectual development are conveyed. And yet this function of hearing—the most useful and pleasure-giving of all our senses—is frequently sacrificed by want of attention to the early symptoms of disease, when judicious treatment could readily affect a cure.

Tyro, treatment is often deferred because there is no manifest pain, and hence no danger is anticipated; or because patients are taught by physicians to believe that their disease is not remediable; or because this department of medicine has been neglected, and physicians, though skilled in other departments, know but little of aural surgery, and hence patients are generally discouraged by them.

In our increased and extended anatomical and physiological knowledge, all just grounds for want of confidence now have entirely ceased to exist, as no department in medical science is more thoroughly and successfully treated than is this branch by Dr Aborn.

The number of our patients is constantly increasing with the increase of population, as they originate in so many diseases incident to childhood—as measles, scarlet fever, whooping-cough, &c., &c.

The latter disease is particularly prone to give rise to affections of the ear. Among the most troublesome (besides impairment of hearing) is one called otorrhœa, "a running from the ear," not strictly a disease, but a symptom of a diseased condition, which often becomes exceedingly offensive.

If this discharge continues without limit, which it is prone to do, it is liable to destroy the "drum" and delicate ossicles of the ear, and finally to produce caries of the bony walls. The popular notion that stopping this discharge endangers some other organ, or the life of the patient, should be corrected. There is far more peril in letting it alone than in curing it. While it continues, the discharge is a constant drain upon the constitution; but the health, on the contrary, is vastly improved by its eradication. Its persistence often indicates a scrofulous diathesis in the system.

Certainly, it is safe to change that morbid condition, to improve the general system; to remove the cause of disease, and the effect then ceases without danger. Nay, more: in the cure of otorrhœa, as in ozena, or a "running from the nose," the consumptive tendency is also cured. Thus rational cure never substitutes one disease for another—never compromises the laws of life.

Now, in order to eradicate this common prejudice, and disprove the false conceptions of both patient and physician, I have repeatedly published, during a series of years, certificates of cures of deafness, and from persons of high social, clerical and political position, as also many indisputable facts of the success of my improved method of treating cases of ear disease, often of seemingly hopeless character.

NEW YORK, August 25.—Money is plenty and large amounts are offered at 2½. The disbursement of gold on account of September interest, thus far, is $1,800,000. Sterling is firmer. Leading houses have advanced rates to 91. Government stocks are quite firm.

Subscriptions to the new loan reach $6,118,000.

Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, August 26.—A fire broke out at one o'clock this morning, in a small house in the west part of the city, occupied by Jacob Ribskaza, who lived up stairs and kept a market below. He was aroused by the smoke, and, snatching a babe from the bed, called his wife to follow him. He rushed down the stairs, which were in flames, and reached the ground, but he and the child were fatally burned. His wife was unable to escape, and her body was found burned to a cinder.

French Affairs.

PARIS, August 25.—In the Assembly to-day the amended bill providing for the gradual disarmament of the National Guard was passed.

Journals sorrowfully comment on the scenes in the Assembly yesterday. It is said Thiers will accept no compromise on the question of prolongation of his powers.

General Faidherbe has written a letter censuring the Assembly and resigning his seat as Deputy.

The first Court-martial has concluded hearing the cases before it. Judgment will probably be rendered Sunday next.

Thiers last night was determined to resign, but did not state his determination in Chambers, because frequent repetitions of a threat to resign made it ridiculous. He seems to feel that he is surrounded by friends who refuse to communicate his purpose to the Assembly. It is thought that a subsequent vote on the National Guard measure will tide over the trouble.

VERSAILLES, August 26.—The Assembly will probably be adjourned on the 10th proximo. State of siege in the Department will be raised when the National Guard is disarmed.

LONDON, August 26.—About two hundred German and Belgian workmen arrived at Newcastle yesterday to replace miners on a strike.

Emperor Napoleon visited Chatham yesterday. He is about to remove his residence to Croydon.

Disturbances of a serious nature occurred in Rome yesterday. A conflict took place between the police and populace, during which one person was killed and two wounded.

Great Britain and the United States have chosen Luigi Corte as the third arbitrator to decide the question involved in the Alabama claims. Corte is appointed Italian Ambassador at Washington.

The Cholera.

LONDON, August 25.—The Independance Belge to-day discredits the reported disappearance of cholera at Antwerp. At Konigsberg, Wednesday, there were 127 cases and 48 deaths. At Dantzic on the same day there were 12 cases and 10 deaths. The epidemic is decreasing in Russia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Three young girls, who arrived from the East overland, in charge of a San Francisco procuress, being discovered the character of the women, on getting out of the cars at Oakland, appealed to the police, who took them in charge, and officers then procured situations for them.

The San Francisco Yacht Club received from Ashbury a magnificent silver tankard, which will be competed for as a prize at the next annual regatta.

The surveying schooner Humboldt, with the Alaska scientific expedition, will sail to-day for Alaska.

The following are members of the European Commission on route to examine the route of the Northern Pacific Railroad, accompanied by Gen. Geo. B. Sargent and Gen. W. M. Judge Morrison this morning again refused to grant a new injunction on the sale of city lots on Yerba Buena Plaza, and there appears now to be no question that the sale will take place on Monday, as advertised. There is a large amount of money here from abroad for investment in these lots, and very good prices will probably be realized.

The steamer Colorado, from Panama last night, brought 300 firkins of butter, the first of the season's shipment.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26.—There were fifty-three deaths in San Francisco this week.

The schooner General Harney, from Kodiac, reports the bark Washington, from San Francisco, lost at Cook's inlet. She was on a fishing cruise, and was owned by N. Richard. Valued at $10,000 with her cargo; $5,000 insured.

Contrary to all expectations, the race undecided yesterday at the Agricultural Park was won by Alexander, on a straight heat, beating the favorite. Time, 2:31½.—the best time ever made on this track. A protest is entered against the decision in the case by Miller, owner of Mayfly, who claims that his mare won the last heat yesterday, and is entitled to the purse.

In the double team trot to-day four teams contested, viz: Alice Benham and India Rubber, Black Swan and Mayfly, Connase and Princess, Mary Davis and Bell; won by Alec Benham and Indea Rubber, the first second and fifth heats. Best time, 2:43½. Swan and Mayfly took the second and third heats. The third heat they made in 2:41½. Had not the mare cast a shoe the last heat they would have won.

It is noticed that the call for the coming election issued by order of the Board of Supervisors, prescribes qualifications of voters under the first, second, third, fourth and fifth sections of the State Constitution, using the words "white male citizens over 21 years of age, or citizens of Mexico before the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo," saying nothing about the constitutional amendments. The omission is probably accidental, but gives colored citizens some anxiety.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—A noted spiritual medium has professionally interviewed the Oakland ghost and got his answer. He says he was one of the El Capitan victims, and might have been saved, but another man jumped on his back, and in saving himself drowned him. He is now looking for the man who did it.

The weather has been fearful. A strong northwester has been blowing all day from Lime Point. Last night was peculiarly warm and windless. About midnight the city was startled by a report like that of the explosion of a heavy powder magazine, which shook the buildings in all parts of town. Many turned out under the impression that some great disaster had occurred, and the reporters ran in all directions, searching the cause. It turned out finally to be the firing of a small signal gun on the steamer Prince Alfred, then coming up the harbor, which ordinarily would not be heard any distance on shore. Some peculiarity of the atmosphere at the moment is supposed to have caused the unusual concussion.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith, No. 316 Pine street, died suddenly in convulsions this noon. She left the following letter:

"Mrs. SENECKMEYER—Dear Friend: I am tired of living. You and Lena can have all I leave behind. You know I have had a good deal of trouble; I have made myself sick crying. I will tell you my name and you can put it in the papers: Mrs. Lizzie Smith, formerly Mrs. Lizzie Seeley, of Albany, New York, aged 26 years. You will take care of me, I know you will. Good-bye; God bless you, Lizzie."

She was highly connected, and not a woman of bad character. The suicide is supposed to have been caused by domestic infelicity. A week since she sent all her valuables, East. The letter was dated Tuesday last, showing that she had long contemplated the suicide.

An Olympia paper says it will not be long until

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 28, 1871.

"Distant" New York.

When we point to the fact that the debt of New York City, where the Democratic party has undisputed control, has been increasing during the last two and a half years at the average rate of $2,387,679 48 a month; that all the Democratic leaders and managers in the city (who are also leaders of the Democratic party of the United States) were bankrupts six years ago, and are now millionaires; that thefts amounting to ten millions of dollars have just been incontestably proven against them, and they can neither refute nor deny the charges; that the gang which is guilty of these enormous peculations, being the accepted leaders of the Democratic party of the country, are trying to acquire national power, and that a triumph of that party next year would put these thieves in power at Washington and give them the whole field of national revenues to plunder in;—when we state all these facts, which are recognized throughout the country as facts of supreme national importance, the Oregon Herald attempts to meet and rebut them by babbling about an alleged small defalcation in a Federal office at Olympia,—where, however, no defalcation exists. Says the Herald:

> The OREGONIAN is partial to corruptions outside of its party, and a long way from home. When its attention is called to embezzlements and rascalities here at home, it cries pshaw! "Look away yonder at New York City! See what bad fellows the Democrats are away yonder. A little stealing, over in Washington Territory, by our own political friends, amounts to nothing; keep a sharp eye on New York."

Of course the OREGONIAN "cries" no such thing. No money is lost at Olympia, though some of the public funds are reported to have been improperly used there, but restored when called for. We have heretofore denounced this act in fitting terms. There has been improper conduct at Olympia, but no "stealing." And we would remind our neighbor, whose ideas are evidently somewhat confused by the prodigious extent of his recent travels, that New York is not "a long way from home." In every sense (except the strictly geographical one) it is the center of the United States; though the simple wonder of the ratio may fix it at an immense distance. What transpires in New York is known and felt at once at the extremities of the country. The influence of that city is so vast that every intelligent American keeps a "sharp eye" on it. And when he sees that a corrupt ring, by plundering the immense revenues of that city and wielding its mighty political and commercial power, propose to extend their dominion over the whole country and obtain the national revenues to prey upon, he will come to the conclusion that this matter is of somewhat more consequence than an alleged petty fraud in a petty office at Olympia—a transaction which, however reprehensible in itself, has resulted in no loss to the Government. It is, perhaps, unfortunate that New York is too small and too distant to be seen by the Herald, since those who read it will never learn from its columns of the astounding frauds perpetrated there by the chiefs of its party.

A Matter of "False Colors."

The organ of Southern Oregon Democracy, the Roseburg Plaindealer, sees fit to say of the Republican party:

> "It has obtained no victory except under false colors, concealing its real purposes and professing principles it did not believe. * * * * * Can such a party be successful? The wisest can be once deceived, but the continued success of this party would be but a poor compliment to the intelligence or virtue of the people."

This, from an organ of a party which is notoriously sailing under the "false colors" of the "new departure," is cool even to frigidity. Even the paper which has the above thing at the Republican party, confesses by its indignant protests against the platforms adopted by the Democrats of Ohio, Pennsylvania, California, and other States, that its own party is now trying to make a fight on false pretenses—that it is "concealing its real purposes, and professing principles it does not believe." The Plaindealer admits this against its party in every protest it utters against the course of the departurists. Hence we learn from that paper that if is its own party which is marching under "false colors," disowning its principles and concealing its purposes in the hope of gaining a victory. Though it says that the Republicans are doing this, its arguments show that it is its own party who are doing it. It is notorious that the Democratic party is now in a false attitude before the country. This the Plaindealer admits when it denounces that attitude and those who have placed the party in it. The simple truth is the party don't know what course to take or what principles to avow. It hardly knows where it is, and has no idea where it will be next year. No Democrat can give an idea what the next platform of his party will be. The nearest he could guess at it would be to say that it will be a composition of one kind of false pretenses or another, something after the fashion of the platforms constructed in Ohio and California this year. Since these things are so, it hardly becomes Democratic organs to accuse their opponents of unfurling "false colors," and "professing principles they do not believe."

Pike County Abroad.

A new editor among us, "all the way from Pike," seems to be profoundly astonished that he ever got so far away from home. He could not have believed, had he not obtained assurance of it through his own senses, that any place could be so distant from Pike as this place is. He has written many columns on discoveries made by himself in reaching this country, and has not yet got over his astonishment at finding that he has traveled so far. He clearly regards himself a pathfinder, and talks with the enthusiasm of a discoverer of things which everybody here has known for twenty or thirty years. It is rumored that the momentous incidents and personal experiences of his travels will be collected for publication and given to a waiting world, under the title of "Pike County Abroad."

Is the doctrine of internal improvements by the General Government a Democratic party doctrine? It almost makes one laugh to hear such a question. Yet the Herald wants the Government to improve the navigation of the Willamet and Columbia rivers; whereas the Kalama Beacon scoffs, tells it that whole traditions of its party are against such a policy, and that the mere mention of it is an insult to the shades of Andrew Jackson. The Beacon has fairly caught the Herald.

Oregon Democratic papers refuse still to become reconciled to the "new departure." The Roseburg Plaindealer alludes to the report that Gen. McCook, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, has become insane, and says: "The terrible calamity that has befallen him was no doubt owing to his attempt to reconcile the new departure with the Democratic platform. We would suggest to some of our cotemporaries to be warned in time." Pleasant reading for the new editor of the Herald, who is understood to be a departurist!

OREGON.

Many people about Salem have a sort of influenza. The doctors have plenty of patients without very dangerous symptoms.

Sparks from a locomotive set on fire the wheat field of Abe Hackleman, near Albany, last week. the damage was considerable.

A splendid place for a lawyer is at Oakland, Oregon, where it is said there is considerable business and not a single lawyer to attend to it.

There are about 500 settlers in Goose Lake valley. Principal crop this year is cricket, which in many localities will yield over one hundred bushels to the acre.

The Albany Register states that a field of 150 acres in Linn county, yielded 8,250 bushels of the finest quality of wheat, the average being 55 bushels per acre.

A young man named Gallagher, while out hunting last Saturday near Soda Springs in Linn county, accidentally shot and killed himself—the ball entering the brain.

Two horsethieves, Charles Morrill and James Good, who stole some horse from the farm of Mr. Kilgore in Jackson county, were arrested in Douglas county on Saturday.

W. B. Clarke, contractor on Umpqua river improvements, advertises for men for the work. He offers $1 75 per day in coin, board included, for man to shovel, pick and strike.

The amount of insurance on all the property destroyed by the late fire at the Dalles, was only forty-five hundred dollars. This loss was sustained by the Pacific Company of San Francisco.

R. N. Bennell proposes to the people of Benton county to build the Ocean Beach Road from near Pioneer City, intersecting Yaquina Bay Wagon Road, to Newport for forty-one hundred dollars, making it a good wagon road.

The Baker City Democrat says: The 16th of this month was one of the hottest days we ever experienced in this valley. It was a scorching, sickening heat, somewhat resembling the sirocco blasts of the deserts of Arabia. Since then a summer complaint has been quite general.

The Corvallis Gazette says: The wheat crop of Benton county is much larger this year than usual, and the yield so far as we can learn is from twenty to forty bushels per acre. The oat crop is not so large as usual and the yield per acre is much less than heretofore. The potato crop is light. The fruit crop is good.

The wife of A. Humphrey of Linn county was terribly burned last week by some fat which she was boiling. The fat ran over on the stove, when she threw a pail of water upon it, causing it to splash over her face, neck and arms, and burning her so severely that it may require weeks of close attention and careful nursing to insure her recovery.

The Roseburg Plaindealer of Saturday says: Mr. Hallet passed over the line of the railroad this week, and was at Oakland on Wednesday. He says the track will be laid to the one hundred and eighty mile-post by January. This is within three quarters of a mile of Oakland. By far the heaviest piece of work yet to be done is on the Smith divide, six miles north of Oakland. A large force will be at work there within a very few days.

Albany Collegiate Institute will open on Monday, September 4th, 1871, with the following corps of teachers: R. K. Warren, A. M., President and Professor of Natural Sciences and Mathematics; Rev. E. R. Geary, D. D., Professor of Ancient Languages, French, and Lecturer on Philology and Ethics; Edward S. Sox, Professor of English Literature, and Assistant Professor of Mathematics; Miss Louisa Quackenbush, Teacher of Instrumental Music.

A few days ago Grand Ronde valley was visited by one of the most terrific thunder storms that was ever known since its first settlement. A fine barn owned by a gentleman named Perdice was struck by lightning, and was consumed entirely, involving a slight loss of hogs, hay and some farming implements. At the Cove a fine horse was struck with lightning and instantly killed. Some children were nearly stunned. The loss of hay was quite extensive.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Hirsch of Salem passed west from Ogden yesterday (Sunday).

Ex-Governor Flanders of Washington Territory is making speeches in Siskiyou county, California.

Chief Justice Chase is on his way to George town, Colorado, for the benefit to be derived from the Rocky Mountain air and hot soda baths.

On the 21st inst., at Oakland (Cal.), Geo. O. H. La Grange attacked Brick Pomeroy for having printed something in his Democrat reflecting on La Grange's domestic relations. Bystanders interfered and prevented serious consequences.

Every Saturday S. J. Baxter, of Hartford, Conn., pays the postage on all letters held for non payment in the postoffice of that city. They are then forwarded, with the request that the receiver will remit the amount paid, a request usually heeded and gratefully acknowledged.

The ultimatum of A. H. Stephens of Georgia, on the "new departure" is simply this, that if the national Democratic party in their platform of 1872, support this new departure in the acceptance of what he calls the fraudulent fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, he will himself take a "new departure" search of a new party.

The Dalles Since the Fire.

Saturday's Mountaineer has the following:

During the past week we have made diligent inquiry to try and ascertain the condition of those who lost everything in the late fire. We have been unable to find even one person who is actually in want of the necessaries of life. The general feeling appears to be of a buoyant nature, and we conversed with no one but what seemed to think that eventually all would be for the best and that in a few years all traces of this terrible conflagration would be entirely wiped out.

A number of buildings have already been put up, and Phœnix like, seem to have arisen from their ashes. The general feeling appears to be to try it again. And we have not heard of a single instance where any one talks discouragingly or of wishing to leave The Dalles on account of the late misfortune that has befallen them.

Since the fire there has been a great demand for carpenters and laborers, and in fact, to judge from appearances, our little city seems to have taken a new start.

Our sympathies are with those who have sustained the losses and our purse is open to assist them to its fullest extent.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a LARGE BONE SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Unk Wood Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and the BONY GROWTH HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED and I can my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

Testimonials:

Hon. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. At weathers one smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and durable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

"JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT. "WM. P. DOCKRAY."

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 09 cents per gallon in favor of the former. JOHN R. PRICE, Supt. Delaware Canal Co.

RUMORS OF RUMORS.—For several days there have existed rumors to the effect that People's Transportation Company have so extend selling out to Ben Holladay. There seem to receive additional confirmation from advertisement which has appeared in this authorizing a meeting of the stockholders of pany and signed by the President and Secretary. In connection with the above, we state that there is also a rumor afloat to the that Holladay is negotiating for the purchasing out the Willamet Falls Canal and Company. There is nothing definite in the as yet.

OUR ADVANTAGES.—Some idea may be had of the relative advantages to be derived living in Oregon and in portions of the Old W from the statement of an old Scotchman who the owner of a fine farm near Dayton. He from Scotland last Spring. He stated that Aberdeenshire, where he was a tenant for thirty long years, he paid his landlord as much rent per acre as he purchased the for here, improved and covered with wheat. wonder then that they who come hither to spy the goodly land give a favorable report to friends and enquiring relations on the over crowded

PIONEERING.—From the following pieces of pertinence we should presume that the early of pioneering are not yet over in this country among the itinerating clergymen. We learn Rev. H. K. Hines of the Walla Walla District Oregon Conference, has traveled six thousand miles during the past year, on horseback and private conveyance. He has crossed the mountains ten times, and camped out forty-eight nights, scattered through all the months of the year except January. The last journey of one hundred and ten miles, was made in thirty-nine hours of continuous driving.

MISS CARRIE A. MOORE.—As it is reported by what is considered good authority, that this celebrated pion skater will pay a visit to Portland ere long, we give the following account of her feats, which is extracted from an exchange: Miss Carrie Moore is as accomplished a velocipedestrian as she is a skater, riding both astride and sidewise, steering and balancing with her feet only, her arms being folded. She also wastes from the floor into the saddle, picks up a handkerchief from the floor while under full headway, takes up and rides a heavy chair while moving rapidly, and does many other difficult and graceful feats.

READING ROOM.—One of the greatest benefactors to the traveling public is a free reading room. The public spirit of our citizens have made the Young Men's Christian Association now occupy Ladd & Tilton's Bank, such an institution is much needed in the city. Any and all who have sufficient manliness and pride to conduct themselves properly, will find welcome. Papers and magazines, both secular and religious are to be found there. Everything is quiet and proper, attention is shown to strangers, under the able management of the Secretary, Mr. Wm. R. Joyslin.

REMODELING.—Carpenters are engaged in remodeling the cabin of the new ferryboat of the O. & C. railroad. It is the intention to tear away most of the upper works and construct a cabin nearly the deck and on a much smaller scale. The machinery will remain where it is, and so will the wheelhouses. The present size of the upper works render the craft unwieldy, and this will afford that degree of comfort and convenience to the public that is desirable. The company therefore, very wisely concluded to have the remodeling.

JEFFERSON ITEMS.—A gentleman named Jefferson, Marion county, sends the following sanctimonious letter under date of 26th inst.:

Laying by to-day to let Gen. Cook's soldiers busy threshing. Wheat shrunken very light. Last year a man of this name left for Portland to purchase a party and went with Bill Workman. This year he has left his family, wife and children and gone to Sea't know'n where. Wheat is a dollar per bushel. Oat 60 cts. Money plenty.

HARVEST.—The old pipes in the boiler of the propeller Oakland have been removed. Three fires are about burned out, and will have to renew the fores and put in a set of fire steam coach longer. Around most of these furnaces an incrustation caused by the constant generation of salt from salt water. This caused increased oxidization and a renewal of strength of the fires. The Oakland was built in 1864, and this are the first repairs made to her boiler—a period of more than seven years.

HOTEL BUSINESS.—Jake Sprenger, formerly "mine host" of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, at his short resid nce in Albany from the time of disposing of his interest in the hotel business, has returned to this city. We learn that it is the intention to embark in the hotel business here. The old court house building at the corner of Main and Front streets is being converted and altered so as to meet the requirements of a hotel. Judge Packard, formerly of the D

RUMORS OF RUMORS.—For several days past there have existed rumors to the effect that the People's Transportation Company have sold or intend selling out to Ben Holladay. These reports seem to receive additional confirmation from an advertisement which has appeared in this paper authorising a meeting of the stockholders of the company and signed by the President and Secretary. In connection with the above, we may state that there is also a rumor afloat to the effect that Holladay is negotiating for the purpose of buying out the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Company. There is nothing definite in the above, as yet.

OUR ADVANTAGES.—Some idea may be gathered of the relative advantages to be derived from living in Oregon and in portions of the Old World, from the statement of an old Scotchman who is the owner of a fine farm near Dayton. He came from Scotland last Spring. He stated that in Aberdeenshire, where he was a tenant for over thirty long years, he paid his landlord annually as much rent per acre as he purchased the land for here, improved and covered with wheat. No wonder then that they who come hither to spy out the goodly land give a favorable report to friends and enquiring relations on the over crowded Continent.

PIONEERING.—From the following piece of experience we should presume that the early days of pioneering are not yet over in this country and the itinerating clergyman. We learn that Rev. H. K. Hines of the Walla Walla District, Oregon Conference, has travelled six thousand miles during the past year, on horseback and by private conveyance. He has crossed the Blue mountains ten times, and camped out forty-two nights, scattered through all the months of the year except January. The last journey of one hundred and ten miles, was made in thirty-nine hours of continuous driving.

MISS CARRIE A. MOORE.—As it is reported on what is considered good authority, that this champion skater will pay a visit to Portland ere long, we give the following account of her feats, which is extracted from an exchange: Miss Carrie Moore is as accomplished a velocipedestrian as she is a skater, riding both astride and sideways, steering and balancing with her feet only, her arms being folded. She also vaults from the floor into the saddle, picks up a handkerchief from the floor while under full headway, takes up and carries a heavy chair while moving rapidly, and does many other difficult and graceful feats.

READING ROOM.—One of the greatest benefactors to the traveling public is a free reading room. The public spirit of our citizens here made the Young Men's Christian Association, now over Ladd & Tilton's Bank, such an institution in this city. Any and all who have sufficient manners and pride to conduct themselves properly, there find welcome. Papers and magazines, both secular and religious are to be found there. Everything is quiet and proper attention is shown to all, under the able management of the Secretary Rev. Wm. R. Joyslin.

REMODELED.—Carpenters are engaged in remodeling the cabin of the new ferryboat of the O. & C. railroad. It is the intention to tear away most of the upper works and construct a cabin nearer the deck and on a much smaller scale. The machinery will remain where it is, and also the wheelhouses. The present size of the upper works render the craft unwieldy, and does not afford that degree of comfort and convenience to the public that is desirable. The company, therefore, very wisely concluded to have them remodeled.

JEFFERSON ITEMS.—A gentleman residing at Jefferson, Marion county, sends the following sententious letter under date of 26th inst.:

Laying track to-day to J. Conser's mill. Farmers busy threshing. Wheat tolerable good, oats light. Last year a man of this place left the Republican party and went with Bill Watkinds. This year he has left his family, wife and children, and gone he don't know where. Wheat is one dollar per bushel. Oats 60 cts. Money plenty.

RATHER OLD.—The old pipes in the boiler of the propeller California have been removed. These flues are about burned out, and could not have resisted the force and pressure of fire and steam much longer. Around most of them were formed an incrustation caused by the constant generation of steam from salt water. This caused increased oxidization and weakened the strength of the flues. The California was built in 1864, and these are the first repairs made to her boiler—a period of more than seven years.

HOTEL BUSINESS.—Jake Sprenger, former "mine host" of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, after his short residence in Albany from the time of disposing of his interest in the hotel just alluded to, has returned to this city. We learn that it is his intention to embark in the hotel business here. The old court house building at the corner of Main and Front streets is being enlarged and altered so as to meet the requirements of a hotel. Judge Packard, formerly of the Dalles, and J. B. Sprengar are to become the conjoint landlords.

MISTAKE IN GEOGRAPHY.—One of the leading New York papers states that Gen. Crook is now making a clean sweep of all the Apache Indians out in Oregon. This is an unpardonable blunder, considering the authority. It is a piece of startling intelligence to learn that we have any of the bloodthirsty Apaches out in Oregon. A little more geography is what is required in that quarter.

ON THE DOCK.—The locomotive and tender brought up on board the Webfoot, have been landed in safety on the wharf below the boneyard. A track has been laid temporarily along the wharf, so that connection can be made with the lower end of the railroad track by means of the turntable. From appearances, it will require at least a month to burnish up the old locomotive and get her in running condition.

THE LARGEST.—The locomotive brought here by the Webfoot is the largest one ever used in connection with the O. & C. railroad. The weight of the locomotive alone is 42 tons, and that of the tender, 7 tons, making a total of 49 tons. The weight of the largest locomotives which have preceded this, does not exceed 30 tons.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to attend the second annual fair of the Washington Territory Agricultural, Manufacturing and Art Fostering Society, which will commence on the 20th of September and continue through four days inclusive, to be held at Walla Walla.

SOLD.—The United States Marshal had the steamer Webfoot No. 2 sold at auction, on Saturday, to pay the salary of the libellant, Mr. Thomas, who had been acting as her engineer for some time past. She was purchased by Mr. J. C. Tracy, for the sum of $575.

LECTURE.—Mrs. Carrie F. Young will lecture at the Court House this evening. This lady enjoys the reputation of being a forcible and pleasing speaker. Let the house be crowded to the extent of its capacity.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.—The preliminary examination of R. Hayward, on the charge of seducing Miss Ursula Pierce under promise of marriage, will take place before Justice Moreland this morning.

MEETING OF COMMITTEES.—There will be an adjourned meeting of the Committees to whom have been referred the Firemen's Anniversary Parade, to-morrow evening at the Police Court Room.

THOSE "WEE DOGS."—An exchange announces that a neighboring town has just been victimized by those "twin wee dogs," the Vieuxtemp Brothers. Rather rough, that.

ON THE WAT.—The Boise Statesman announces that the Pixley Sisters were tendered a benefit there on the 19th inst., and are on their way to Portland.

TO SAIL.—The steam propeller Geo. S. Wright will sail from this port for Sitka and way ports this evening.

TURN-TABLE.—The turn-table at the end of the track on the West Side road is nearly finished.

DUE.—The steamship Idaho from San Francisco, will be due at this port this evening.

ARRIVED.—The steamship John L. Stephens reached San Francisco yesterday.

A CANARD.—The Kalama Beacon chap grows savage over a report which he says was started in Portland to the effect that the bark Niobe, moored at the Kalama wharf, was "hard and fast" aground, and that eight feet was the extent of channel. Upon inquiry it was found that upon arrival the bark drew eighteen feet six inches, with nine hundred tons of railroad iron; and that since unloading she has lightened several feet—and that, instead of being aground, she could reload at the wharf, and leave with the same "draw." This most foul slander ought to be presented with proper spirit and decency; especially so when the acute Beacon editor is engaged in the arduous task of writing Portland completely out of existence, and Kalama—more recently Columbia City—into being the great commercial metropolis of the Northwest.

LET THEM SING.—A cynically disposed fellow, who has no music in his soul, or out of it either for that matter, wishes to know why the police regulations do not suppress those melancholy and plaintive strains of music which are heard to proceed from Chinese brothels during the hours of night. We would refer him to the Pow Com missioner. But we suggest that those subdued strains of instrumental music, and those caterwauling-like sounds which emanate from the throats of the Miss Ah Mings, and the rest of Ahs, should not be suppressed, but should be allowed to torture the dull ear of night and everybody else's ears. Again we say, let 'em sing.

PHOTOGRAPHIC FRAME.—Mr. Joseph Buchtel, who has often been styled "the pioneer artist of Portland," has just constructed a large photographic frame, similar to the one which can be seen at the entrance to Corbett's building. The frame is much larger than any of the kind in the city. It will be lined with black velvet, and covered with glass to protect the photograph, and is to be placed along the side of the entrance hall to the building. Joseph has devised this method to enable the public to have a glance at a pleasant array of countenances without expense and without the labor of climbing the stairs. Besides, you see, it will advertise his business.

AN OLD BUILDING.—The old wooden building standing to the rear of L. White & Co.'s store, has been torn away to give place to a new building. This structure was erected by W. S. Ladd in 1853, and consequently was in the eighteenth year of its existence—to speak figuratively—when torn down by piecemeal. Green moss had accumulated all over both roof and sides. The rickety condition of the old house with its moss covered sides and roof gave strong indications that many long years past had quietly stolen over it. Thus has passed from our eyes another old landmark of primitive days in the history of Portland.

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES.—A San Francisco exchange is responsible for the following, which is so eminently characteristic of California ideas that we publish it: "Our city millers will certainly be glad to have Oregonians stop their flour direct to foreign ports, rather than send it here, to glut our market and keep up a sharp competition for the trade of this port. Our millers and shippers would much prefer to receive the Oregon wheat than the flour, for in the former case it can be utilized to a good purpose by mixing with the California product."

WASHINGTON STREET BRIDGE.—The excavation along Washington street, between King's Creek and Tenth, will be completed in a few days. The planking and laying of sidewalks will soon follow. The bridge which spans the ravine through which the creek flows, is completed to a short distance of B street. This distance is being filled up by the loose dirt from the excavation, which is thrown out until an intersection with B street is formed. When this is effected there will be no finer street for a dash or a promenade than Washington.

APOLOGETIC.—Usually Sunday is just as lucky as any other day for an itemizer; but yesterday was so very dull that we were compelled to forage upon exchanges for the usual complement of readable news. On Sunday a reporter is expected to be decorous and not use any impious means to "corral" an item. Then we have no courts to rely upon, and the principal avenues of information are generally closed. The reporter who assists in getting out any Sunday edition is no object of envy.

ENJOYING A SAIL.—A great many ladies and gentlemen were out enjoying the pleasures of a quiet and last evening. The weather was at the right temperature to steady the nerves, and a light breeze came sweeping gently up the river. Besides, there was romance enough in the surroundings, and plenty of stars and "la la Lums," the lapping, sobbing little waves, and "all that sort of thing," for lovers to get sentimental over.

AN UNFORTUNATE FALL.—Just before the departure of the steamer Constantine from this port on Friday evening, Mrs. L. F. Beatty, one of the passengers, while crossing the deck slipped and fell through the after hatch to the deck below. The distance was about fifteen feet. She was injured seriously, but proceeded on the voyage, notwithstanding the persuasions of her friends to remain here until she got better.

FEW TRANSFERS.—For the few weeks past the real estate transactions are growing "beautifully less." Few deeds are filed for record in the County Clerk's office. The market appears to be distressingly quiet. A protracted paralysis in real estate sales is beginning to make brokers feel a little nervous. However, it is confidently expected that the former actively will revive this fall; at least all indulge in that hope.

FIRE.—Intelligence has reached us that a destructive fire occurred a few nights since out in Washington county. A large barn containing quantities of wheat, oats and hay, was entirely consumed. Loss, about $5,000; no insurance. Cause of the fire, children playing with matches. The unwelcome news of destructive fires has become of almost daily occurrence.

ACQUITTED.—The Constable of Justice Dryer's court, Mr. Thomas Johnson, was arraigned on Saturday last before Justice Moreland for the alledged crime of larceny by bailee. The parties making the charge were Messrs. Lee & Walker, former proprietors of the Eastern Restaurant. The defendant was honorably discharged after a hearing.

SUDDEN DEATH.—James Hayes, an old resident of Eastern Oregon, and at one time a member of the Territorial Legislature of Idaho, died in this city at a late hour on Saturday night after a very brief illness. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large number of his friends.

BEAUTIFUL DAY.—Yesterday was a most lovely day. The temperature was just at that agreeable turn where it is neither too warm nor too cool. Our people were not unconscious of the opportunity offered, but were promenading the streets or taking a dash out to the White House.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—The exercises at the Missionary Concert given at the M. E. Church in East Portland yesterday afternoon were quite interesting. The proceeds of the collection taken up at the conclusion was applied to the Missionary cause.

MARRIAGE OF THEATRICALS.—It is stated by the Boise City papers that Mr. Nod Campbell, a well-known actor of this city, was married a few days since to Miss Anna Pixley. Mr. Campbell is the manager of the Pixley Dramatic Troupe.

PASSENGERS.—The following passengers arrived from the north on the Geo. S. Wright: J M Manasse, Chas Kinkead, G W Brady, Jas Magee, 1 Frohman, Rev Father Kadrlawnsky and servt, Chas Fricke.

HELD TO ANSWER.—The man Barber, charged with the larceny of $160 from an old man named Mahon, a few nights ago at the Pearl saloon, has been held to answer to the Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000.

NATHAN TROUPE.—This troupe is playing at Salem to full houses, and appear to give satisfaction to their audiences. Before their return to this city they intend to perform at Albany.

VESSELS.—Steam propellers California (repairing), Geo. S. Wright and U. S. Grant, ship Sovereign, barks Skiddaw and Garibaldi, are the vessels now in port.

NEPTUNE ROWING CLUB.—A meeting was held by the members of this Club yesterday afternoon. Some private business was transacted and the Club adjourned.

NOT ARRIVED.—The Gussie Telfair has not arrived from the north as we go to press. She was due on Saturday evening, and may be expected at any time.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATION.—At the court house this (Monday) evening, August 28th, at 7½ o'clock, Mrs. Carrie P. Young, by request, will deliver her second lecture in this city on the above subject. Every man, woman and child, every Christian, and friend of humanity, every one who would lessen the evils consequent upon the scourge of intemperance now rife in the land, should be on hand and listen to her vivid portrayal of the misery, desolation and woe, created by the rumfiend. Citizens of Portland, wives and mothers, we call upon you to assist us by your efforts; it is not said that we do not do our duty. Let each and every one attend. Admission free.

ICED FAVORS.—For sundry "chunks" of ice, presented "when like a summer dried fount our need was the sorest," the thanks of this office are hereby tendered to one Geo. Kaiser, who is an icy man of the first water and who knows how to satisfy a crowd of thirsty compositors.

SUBSIDED.—The fire has about subsided on the east side of the river, after ravaging among the timber and threatening to do much damage to property for several days past. A fire has been burning for the last three or four days in the timber to the northwest of the city.

Wilted Down.

Ask the man who complains of "wilting down" in torrid weather what he has done to sustain his system under the extra strain imposed on his vitality. He may tell you that he has tried a variety of cathartics to purify his blood and brighten his spirits. Under such treatment, of course, his strength has given way, and his energies have become exhausted. What he requires is a restorative, not a depletant. His blood is thin; his nerves have lost their natural tension; and nature demands to be recreated and reinforced. The means is within the reach of all. For nearly a score of years, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have been building up broken constitutions, strengthening attenuated frames, and affording comfort, ease, and hope to thousands. As a preventive of the epidemics which make such havoc with the health of the inhabitants of new settlements, this famous tonic is certainly without a rival. Perhaps the principal portion of its world-wide fame is attributable to its astonishing cures of dyspepsia, and all forms of indigestion. But these are not a moiety of its triumphs. All the types of biliousness yield to its persistent use. It is a regulating medicine of the highest order; and its effect upon the secretions, when irregular, are most salutary.

Imposition of the grossest character is sought to be practiced upon the community by vendors, who recommend under the name of "bitters," fiery compounds of a dangerous character, which they attempt to substitute for the great national tonic. Shun all such nostrums, and see that you have the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, properly authenticated by label, name and stamp, and sold in bottles only.

Steamer George S. Wright, from Sitka, arrived last night, and commenced receiving freight at 2 o'clock this afternoon. She sails on Monday (August 28) evening at 7 o'clock.

The bark Garibaldi has finished discharging, and all her cargo is in bonded warehouse. We have been informed that her cargo could not have been received in better condition, as not a package was broken, nothing sweated, and all delivered perfect.

Messrs. Hawley, Dodd & Co. had 100 tons iron, steel, etc., and Corbett, Failing & Co. had steel, etc., on Knight Errant, bound to San Francisco from Liverpool, and lost off Cape Horn. All shipments from England are covered by insurance, and the probabilities are these were.

The steamer Idaho left San Francisco, Friday morning, and is due here on Wednesday morning. She will sail on her return trip on September 2d.

The Baltic C. Bean, with cargo, passengers and Chinese goods from China, and the Jane A. Falkinburg, with cargo of sugar, from Honolulu, are fully due. Our assortment of island sugar is badly broken, but with the arrival of the Jane A. Falkinburg our stock will be increased at least 4,000 kegs of assorted grades.

Steamer Wahfoot was sold to-day by the U. S. Marshal and brought $575.

Latest advices from London (July 31st) state that the bark Metis was loading with railroad iron for Portland. She will bring about 850 tons.

The sudden advance in Liverpool of wheat, 6d, in two days, creates considerable speculation as to the cause. In the absence of any definite advice we can only surmise the causes. The dispatches of this morning informed us that the crops of Scotland were injured by the weather. We hardly think that the crops of Scotland could be injured to such an extent as to cause the sudden advance. In Ireland the "potato rot" is very bad. It has been suggested that the cholera in Russia will prevent exporting to England from the Baltic. Cholera has been in Russia near two months, and it is singular that only at this time any attention is drawn toward it. If cholera is committing great ravages then England is in duty bound to protect her subjects; forbidding all intercourse or else quarantine all vessels from the Baltic. There have been rumors of a probable difficulty between Austria and Russia for some weeks, and a day or two ago the dispatches informed us that the Czar of Russia had issued a ukase permanently abolishing the privileges granted to German citizens. Of the causes for his issuing such a proclamation we are in ignorance, but one thing is self evident, it speaks very much like war. Another report reached us by telegraph that Germany was gathering large stores. The true causes, as before stated, we are in ignorance of, but of this fact we are aware, and that is, with three the Baltic exports of wheat from market, and a very large supply is cut off, near at home, which has to be supplied from other sources. The export of wheat to other countries from only one shipping point—which is the largest—Odessa, was, in 1867 fully 2,000,000 tschetverkes, and in 1868 1,150,000 tschetverkes, and in 1869 11,093,068 tschetverkes, and in 1870 we have no account, but it is safe in saying it would be fully one-quarter as much more as in 1869. For this year, owing to the high and remunerative rates ruling in 1870, the increase—owing to increased acreage—was estimated to exceed that of 1870 and ranging near to the amount produced in 1867. If the cholera is the cause, that will disappear within three or four months, so as to allow of shipments from the Baltic before wheat from the Pacific could reach England. There are but two reasons upon which, in any way, to base the rise; they are, very unfavorable crop advices from other parts of Europe aside from Scotland or else European complications, the latter is the opinion that has more weight. That the war, if there should be one, will in every general there is no doubt of, as English capitalists in Roumania have been instructed to, which Bismarck's proceedings, and Greece and Turkey are threatening one another, as we are informed by telegraph received overland from California. To supply the English and French demand in the event of trouble in Europe, the United States is looked to. In the Eastern States, as also in Canada, the crop of wheat is very large. In the Southern and Western States more corn was produced, this year than ever before; so, although prices will be high, we do not anticipate a much further advance, if any, for some time, than is now attained, even in the event of European war or failure of crops. In 1860, owing to the large shipments made from the United States to the United Kingdom, the United Kingdom drew but little from the Baltic, and consequently in 1870 there were 10,000,000 bushels of wheat stored in Odessa not having found a market. So the United States this year will be able to supply the demand there without shipments from the Baltic.

Since the above was set up we are in receipt of advices, by mail, from California, telegraphed to San Francisco, stating the entire potato crop of Ireland is blighted or very nearly a total failure. That and the injury to the wheat crop in Scotland may account for the rapid advance in wheat in Liverpool.

By politeness of the Custom House officials in Astoria we are placed in receipt of the following statistics of the imports, exports and clearances at that port from January 1st, 1871, to August 26th, 1871. Total value of exports to foreign countries, $36,187. Included are—to Peru, lumber, 301 M, $4,100; spars, etc., $388. To China, lumber, 388 M, $3,405; spars, etc., $469. To Hawaiian Islands, lumber, 229 M, $2,180; spars, etc., $435. The Centennville ship fall cargoes of lumber to San Francisco every month, but they do not report at the Custom House, and we have no account of them. Total value of imports from foreign countries, $143,423. Number of vessels in foreign trade, cleared, 23; tons, 11,451. Number of vessels cleared in coast trade, 207; tons, 122,914.

The monthly report of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, No. 11, shows the following imports and exports for the eleven months ending May 31, 1871:

The San Francisco Bulletin, in a review of things seen at the Mechanics' Institute Fair in that city, gives a very favorable notice of Oregon City woolen goods, and adds: "The production of this company consists chiefly of tweeds, flannels, cassimeres, blankets and yarn. They manufacture mainly for the Oregon market, which gives little demand for the finer styles of woolen goods. In cassimeres they claim superiority to any institution on the coast. Their stock of cassimeres is large and of varied assortment. Many of the best pieces of goods seen in the windows of our aristocratic tailor shops are from this factory. Of tweeds, for men's and boy's wear, their supply is good. They make all the varieties of blankets, from the coarse gray to the finest lambs' wool, at $40 per pair. Their flannels are substantial, and of various grades of fineness. They exhibit forty-five pieces of cassimere, which those who love to examine good fabrics, will be pleased to look at."

Steamer George S. Wright, from Sitka, arrived last night, and commenced receiving freight at 2 o'clock this afternoon. She sails on Monday (August 28) evening at 7 o'clock.

The bark Garibaldi has finished discharging, and all her cargo is in bonded warehouse. We have been informed that her cargo could not have been received in better condition, as not a package was broken, nothing wetted, and all delivered perfect.

Messrs. Hawley, Dodd & Co. had 100 tons iron, steel, etc., and Corbett, Failing & Co. had steel, etc., on Knight Errant, bound to San Francisco from Liverpool, and lost off Cape Horn. All shipments from England are covered by insurance, and the probabilities are these were.

The steamer Idaho left San Francisco Friday morning, and is due here on Wednesday morning. She will sail on her return trip on September 2d.

The Battle C. Bess, with cargo, sugar, coal and Chinese goods from China, and the Jane A. Falkenburg, with cargo of sugar, from Honolulu, are fully due. Our assortment of Island sugar is badly broken, but with the arrival of the Jane A. Falkenburg our stock will be increased at least 4,000 bags of assorted grades.

Steamer Wellfleet was sold to-day by the U. S. Marshal and brought $675.

Latest advices from London (July 21st) state that the bark Metis was loading with railroad iron for Portland. She will bring about 850 tons.

The sudden advance in Liverpool of wheat, 6d, in two days, causes considerable speculation as to the cause. In the absence of any definite advices we can only surmise the causes. The dispatches of this morning informed us that the crops of Scotland were injured by the weather. We hardly think that the crops of Scotland could be injured to such an extent as to cause the sudden advance. In Ireland the "potato rot" is very bad. It has been suggested that the cholera in Russia will prevent exporting to England from the Baltic. Cholera has been in Russia near two months, and it is singular that only at this time any attention is drawn toward it. If cholera is committing great ravages then England is in duty bound to protect her subjects; forbidding all intercourse or else quarantine all vessels from the Baltic. There have been rumors of a probable difficulty between Austria and Russia for some weeks, and a day or two ago the dispatches informed us that the Czar of Russia had issued a ukase permanently abolishing the privileges granted to German citizens. Of the causes for his issuing such a proclamation we are in ignorance, but one thing is self evident, it speaks very much like war. Another report reached us by telegraph that Germany was gathering large stores. The two causes, as before stated, we are in ignorance of, but of this fact we are aware, and that is, withdraw the Baltic exports of wheat from market, and a very large supply is cut off, near at home, which has to be supplied from other sources. The export of wheat to other countries from only one shipping point—which is the largest—Odessa, was, in 1867, fully 2,000,000 tschetvertes, and in 1868 1,150,000 tschetvertes, and in 1869, 1,083,063 tschetvertes, and in 1870 we have no account, but it is safe to saying it would be fully one-quarter as much more as in 1869. For this year, owing to the high and remunerative rates ruling in 1870, thats cross—owing to increased acreage—was estimated to exceed that of 1870 and ranging near to the amount produced in 1867. If the cholera is the cause, that will disappear within three or four months, so as to allow of shipments from the Baltic before wheat from the Pacific could reach England. There are but two reasons upon which, in any way, to base the rise; they are, very unfavorable crop advices from other parts of Europe, aside from Scotland, or else European complications, the latter is the opinion that has more weight. That the war, if there should be one, will be very general there is no doubt of, as English officials in Roumania have been arrested by Bismarck's proceedings, and Greece and Turkey are threatening one another, as we are informed by telegraph received overland from California. To supply the English and French demand in the event of trouble in Europe, the United States is looked to. In the Western States, and also in Canada, the crop of wheat is very large. In the Southern and Western States more corn was produced this year than ever before so, although prices will be high, we do not anticipate a much further advance, if any, for some time, that can be attained, even in the event of European war or failure of crops. The 1869 crop in the large shipping districts of the United States to the United Kingdom, the United Kingdom drew but little from the Baltic, and consequently in 1870 there were 10,000,000 bushels of wheat stored in Odessa not having found a market. So the United States this year will be able to supply the demand there without shipments from the Baltic.

Since the above was set up we are in receipt of advices, by mail, from California, telegraphed to San Francisco, stating the entire potato crop of Ireland is blighted or very nearly a total failure. That and the injury to the wheat crop in Scotland may account for the rapid advance in wheat in Liverpool.

By politeness of the Custom House officials in Astoria we are placed in receipt of the following statistics of the imports, exports and clearances at that port from January 1st, 1871, to August 26th, 1871: Total value of exports to foreign countries, $36,157. Included are—to Peru, lumber, 391 M, $4,160; spars, etc., $388. To China, lumber, 383 M, $3,496; spars, etc., $462. To Hawaiian Islands, lumber, 229 M, $2,189; spars, etc., $438. The C. F. Sills ship fall cargoes of lumber to San Francisco every month, but they do not report at the Custom House, and we have no account of them. Total value of imports from foreign countries, $143,215. Number of vessels in foreign trade, cleared, 23; tons, 11,451. Number of vessels cleared in coast trade, 264; tons, 122,014.

The monthly report of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, No. 11, shows the following imports and exports for the eleven months ending May 31, 1871:

	Imports.	Domestic Exports (specie values).	Foreign Exports.
Merchandise	$410,890,070	$296,236,921	$12,016,430
Specie and bullion	39,270,368	36,067,311	12,202,871

Eleven months ending May 31, 1870:

	Imports.	Domestic Exports (specie values).	Foreign Exports.
Merchandise	$336,936,292	$347,631,329	$14,801,015
Specie and bullion	25,471,358	33,200,709	12,909,684

The San Francisco Bulletin, in a review of things seen at the Mechanics' Institute Fair in that city, gives a very favorable notice of Oregon City woolen goods, and adds: "The production of this company consists chiefly of tweeds, flannels, cassimeres, blankets and yarn. They manufacture mainly for the Oregon market, which gives little demand for the finer styles of woolen goods. In cassimeres they claim superiority, to any institution on the coast. Their stock of cassimeres is large and of varied assortment. Many of the best pieces of goods seen in the windows of our aristocratic tailor shops are from this factory. Of tweeds, for men's and boy's wear, their supply is good. They make all varieties of blankets, from the coarse gray to the finest lambs' wool, at $40 per pair. Their flannels are substantial, and of various grades of fineness. They exhibit forty-five pieces of cassimere, which those who love to examine good fabrics will be pleased to look at."
